

BCGS United States Genealogical Coffee Chat – April 15, 2021

Below are some items that came up during the meeting and which were not included in the original Handout.

Mayflower Research: These are just two websites that came up during a google search. There many more.

1. Mayflower Passenger List: Caleb Johnson's MayflowerHistory.com
<http://mayflowerhistory.com/mayflower-passenger-list>
2. Mayflower Passenger List and Other Mayflower Passenger Facts: Family Search <https://www.familysearch.org/blog/en/mayflower-passenger-list/>

United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada: Research of Canadian Families will lead back to the US. <http://www.uelac.org/> A Canadian society that researches and records those who fled to Canada during the American Revolution.

Family Search Research Wiki: A free, online genealogical guide created and maintained by FamilySearch.

https://www.familysearch.org/wiki/en/FamilySearch_Wiki:FamilySearch_Research_Wiki Border Crossing Records: check Ancestry, Library and Archives Canada and FamilySearch for Canada to the United States. Records cover 1895-1956.

Vermont, St. Albans Canadian Border Crossings, 1895-1954. This collection contains an index to Canadian border entries through the St. Albans, Vermont, District, 1895-1954 and corresponds with NARA collections.

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/collection/218516>

Library of Congress American Memory: Remaining Collections. Listings of Newspaper Archives: It was mentioned during the meeting that this is a website worth knowing about. <https://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html>

This site will also direct you to a list of all digitized collections at Library of Congress Digital Collections: <https://www.loc.gov/collections/>

The Ancestor Hunt blog by Kenneth R Marks' – Newspaper collections. Highly recommended by Celia Lewis. <https://www.theancestorhunt.com/newspaper-research-links.html>

Allen County Public Library: Free Databases for genealogy research: <https://acpl-cms.wise.oclc.org/explore-genealogy/our-resources>

Judith Ueland

April 2021 jmjueland@telus.net